WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1867.

The Editor of the Democrat calls for a Democratic State Convention on the 15th of June.

To the People of Kentucky:

The Democratic party of the United States is hereby called to a National Democratic Executive Committee to assemble at Chicago on the 15th of July 1867, and elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention to be held at Chicago on the 15th of September, 1868. In response to this invitation the Democratic party of Kentucky ought to call a convention of its members on the 15th of June, 1867, and elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention to be held at Chicago on the 15th of September, 1868. The delegates to be elected should be men of ability and energy, and should be men who are true to the principles of the Democratic party. The convention should be held at

Louisville, Kentucky, on the 15th of June, 1867. The delegates to be elected should be men of

of June, 1867. The delegates

to be elected should be men of

of June, 1867. The delegates
